Fourth Sunday of Easter -

In today's Scripture Readings from Acts of the Apostles we hear, "all who were destined for eternal life came to believe". In the Gospel for this weekend Jesus says: "My sheep hear My voice; I know them, and they follow Me." John offers a vision of a "great multitude...from every nation, race, people, and tongue" (Revelation 7:9). How do we know that some are destined for eternal life or hears Christ's voice or will be counted in that great multitude? We know it when we see someone live how Jesus teaches us to live. Or, as Pope Francis put it: "Listening to religious teaching or learning a doctrine is not enough. What we want is to live as Jesus lived: (Twitter post, 1/17/2018).

Like the jealousy that Paul and Barnabas experienced, or being washed in the blood of the Lamb, the living Jesus often elicits fear and envy in those who resist His teachings. Fear and envy can result in ridicule, rejection, and ruin because those who are afraid resist seeing as God sees. That resistance has led to followers of Jesus being martyred. As St Francis de Sales explained it – every martyr died for divine love. So if we say that their deaths were for the faith, we must assert that it was for a living faith, not a dead faith, a faith that is animated by the will and love of God (Treatise on the Love of God).

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is known as both Good Shepherd Sunday and the "World Day of Prayer of Vocations". The Scripture Readings for this weekend are about shepherds. You and I – as sheep of Jesus' flock, are also at times a shepherd to someone else. As sheep of God's flock, ours is called to be a living faith, animated by charity / love in word and in action. We are called to live as Jesus lived by listening for His voice. Act on what we hear, even when rejected. Live Jesus here and know that you are destined for life eternal in which God offers us springs of life-giving water and will wipe away every tear from our eyes.

"Let us Pray for the Conversion of the World & for Peace"

Happy Mother's Day

Holy God, Creator of all life, we give you thanks for our Mom's, for the life You give to us through them, and for their countless acts of love and service.

Bless our Mothers' works of love, lighten their burdens, renew their strength, and give them joy.

We pray for all mothers. May they have the courage to live holy lives and the faith to persevere in love. May their children be a blessing to them and to the world.

And for our Mom's who have been called to their eternal home, we ask that you hold them in your tender embrace until that day that we are all united around the banquet that You have prepared for all Your faithful.

We ask all this through Jesus Christ, Son of God and Son of Mary, Who lives forever and ever. AMEN

There is an old Jewish proverb that goes, "God could not be everywhere, and therefore He made mothers." Mothers are the embodiment of God's love. As we celebrate Mother's Day this weekend, we reflect on God's love and pause to remember all mothers – living and deceased. This week's Easter Opportunity: Say a HAIL MARY and remember we all share a heavenly mother in and through Mary. Also say a special prayer for mothers in need. NOTE: The Evangelization Committee will meet on Wednesday, May 15th at 6:30 pm in the Conference Room. New members always welcome! Join US!
