6th Sunday of Easter -

Gardening began with the fall. In Eden, Adam and Eve enjoyed the fruits and foliage of paradise without need of shovel, hoe, or pesticides. Gardening would teach these two and their descendants what paradise had not. Every gardener learns that without water, air, and sunlight no garden can grow. These necessary ingredients are God-given. Gardening can teach us, the descendants of Adam and Eve, the necessity of depending on God's grace.

The garden has much to teach us about the patience and love of Jesus. In agony before His passion, Jesus prayed in a garden, utterly dependent on His Father's grace. It was in a garden that He was buried, the seed of Resurrection planted in the dark Earth of death. Mary Magdalene, the first to see the risen Christ, mistook Him for a gardener. Truly the risen Christ is a gardener, patiently tending the seed of eternal life planted in us at Baptism.

Saint Paul draws on gardening images when he writes to the Church of Corinth: "So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but God Who gives the growth" (I Corinthians 3:7). Paul was not talking about his vegetable garden but about the Church. Like any good gardener, Paul knew that he had to rely on grace, not ego or self will, for growth.

The Easter Season is a wonderful time to plant a garden. If you don't have a garden, plant a windowsill garden or a container garden. Try including plants that will help Scripture come alive such as vines (Jesus tells us that He is the vine and we are the branches), lily of the valley (Song of Solomon 2:1), and crocuses (Isaiah 35:1). Grow plants that can be used for holy days such as lilies for Easter, or thyme, a manger herb, for the Christmas crèche.

discovering CHRIST

The first holiday weekend of the year is upon us. As we remember all those that lost their lives in service to our country, let us keep them and their families in prayer. Additionally, as we travel and enjoy the Memorial Day weekend, let's not forget GOD! It is easy to be swayed by social commitments and expectations, but we need to remember that God must come first in all that we do. We pray for a blessed and safe holiday weekend for all!

This week's Easter Opportunity: Offer a special prayer for all armed forces members living a deceased at Mass this weekend. And remember to go to Mass even if you are travelling. Looking for a church service while you are away? Visit www.masstimes.org.
